

The topic of this response is Part-to-Whole. According to the rubric, part-to-whole level 3, I need to name the story element and talk about how it is important to the whole story.

In The Sisters Grimm, I believe the setting is important to the story.

Daphne and Sabrina are orphans travelling to Ferryport Landing to live with their grandmother.

Ferryport Landing is a quiet town with mostly farmland. Sabrina comments that "~~~~~".

The reason the setting is important is because it is unlike where Sabrina and Daphne used to live. They previously lived in New York City, which is much busier than Ferryport Landing. This affects Sabrina's perspective, causing her to be unhappy with
