

Dear First Grade Families,

This unit of reading is so exciting! We are meeting so many different characters in our books and all the different adventures they are going on. Please follow the schedule below for each daily reading activity. Please have your child use a notebook to write any activities.

Remember to talk about the books you are reading! Please share your child's work with us by taking a picture and sending it to your teachers on ClassDojo, Remind, or by email. Thank you!

Love,

The First Grade Teachers

Here are some wonderful books that will help you to get started on your reading adventures! You can read these books at anytime or with the daily reading activities.
